

Ash Trees

Ash trees have compound leaves, arranged oppositely on the branch, of 5-11 leaflets.

Ash bark is smooth and gray when young and forms a distinct corky diamond pattern as it ages.

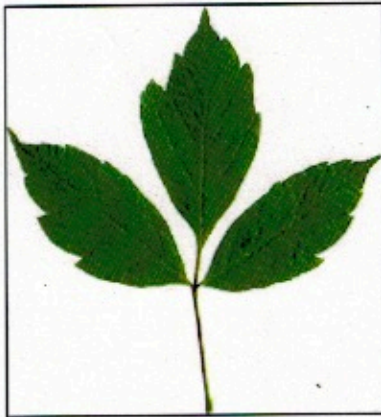

The fruit is a single seed surrounded by an oar shaped wing.

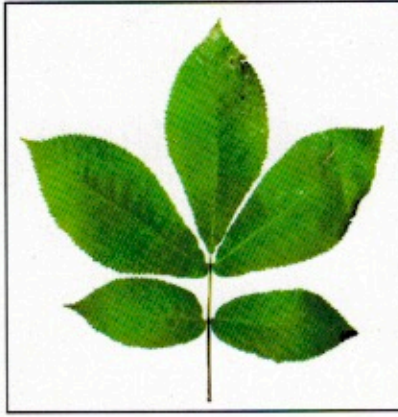

Ash Look Alikes

Black Walnut
10-24 leaflets and even number, fruit is a large nut

Box Elder
Opposite leaves, 3 or 5 leaflets, fruit samara,

Hickory
Alternate leaves, 5-9 leaflets, fruit is large nut

Tree of Heaven
Alternate leaves, 11-25 leaflets, fruit samara